IS ASKING FOR EXPLANATION

Arrest of Two Frenchmen in Morocco the Subject of Diplomatic Conversations.

paris, July 12.-France has asked the French Charge d'Affaires at Madrid to request an explanation from the Spanish government regarding the mistreatment of two Frenchmen by Spanish troops at Alcasar, Morocco. The Frenchmen, who are merchants, were arrested and relieved of their revolvers on the ground that they had violated a decree prohibiting the carrying of weapons, issued by the Spanish forces occupying the town. The French press has turned its attention from the Franco-German controversy to the Spanish attitude, and declares that France will no longer accept the "provocations" from Spain, which began by the extension of her military operations in Northern Morocco. Madrid, July 12.-Advices from Aleasar egarding the revolver incident show that the two merchants were not mistreated

as Fabroni Exposes Them.

WITNESS WARNED BY JUDGE TAN COVERS WHITE GUARDS

Gives Names of Those Who Hired the Society to Influence Elections in Naples.

Viterbo, Italy, July 12.-Captain Fabroni, who, if not the star witness for the crown in the Camorrist trial, has at least made the accused more uncomfortable than they have been made by any earlier occupant of the stand, to-day went deep into the political influence of the Camorra, and mentioned names with a boldness that caused the judge to caution him to be moderate in his statements. The witness replied: "I must say all and give an exact picture of the prevailing atmosphere in order to strike a deadly blow at this criminal association."

Fabroni in the guise of a clerk from the Ministry of Justice, devoted years to learning the alleged conection between the Canorra and the Neapolitan judiciary. Along this line he said, in substance "The Camorrist has no political ideals. He exploits both the electors and the elect ed for gain. The leaders distribute bands throughout the town, and they have recourse to violence to obtain the votes of the electors for the candidates they have determined to support. Those who refuse to vote as instructed are beaten, slashed with knives or kidnapped. All this is done with assurance of immunity, as they will have the protection of successful politicians, who realize that they cannot be chosen to office without paying toll to the Camorra."

Witness Becomes Specific.

Asked to be more specific Fabroni said ne had especially in mind former Deputy Gargiulo and Count Ravaschieri. "The latter," he continued, "in 1904 hired the Camorra, which at that time surpassed all precedents in corruption abuses and crime. During the election of Ravaschieri, Enrico Alfano, Ciro Vitozzi, the priest, and Giocanni Rapi promenaded the streets of Naples wearing large tri-color rosettes, and Atlantic City, July 12.-With a parting as masters of the town ordered all kinds message of encouragement and an earnest plea for greater work during the next two of lawlessness in order to attain their obyears. The president finally restored order.

the guest of Sir T. Vezey Strong, Lord According to Mr. Wanamaker, England

"The English people, I believe," he said. "feel that they are the running mate of America in its effort to promote universal peace. I doubt if any one can speak for Surviving Mr. Mooney are three brothers, the masses in this regard, but I do know Dr. Henry Walton Mooney, of this city; that the makers of public sentiment and ure of Canada, met many Canadians while Services will be held at Woodlawn at 3 abroad, among them Sir Wilfrid Laurier, He also was presented to the Duke of Connaught, who will soon become the Governor General of Canada. Mr. Wanamaker said that the people of England seem to favor in the abstract the idea of reciprocity with Canada.

"They have their differences of opinion, he said, "as to the various articles of agreement. I think in some quarters they favor a provision to dissolve the tariff agreement at the end of a year should if prove unsatisfactory. The veteran merchant advocated a migration to Canada. "Canada is a great country," he said. "It is a fine field for Americans. The tide is already turning there from the South and from the West. There is need no longer to tell the young man to go West. He can go North and do well. Canada is a good field for young men. It became known on board the Oceania that Mr. Wanamaker would be seventy-
